SEE BIG VOTE FOR SMITH ALONG LINE

Democratic Committee Plans Campaign at Ardmore Meeting.

WILL MEET SATURDAY

Prediction that Governor Smith would get a big vote for President in the November election in the general Main Line territory, one of the biggest ever given a Democratic candidate here, was made at the first meeting of the Lower Merion and Narberth Democratic Committee held Saturday night.

The meeting, called by Richard J. Hamilton, Lower Merion School Board member and Ardmore banker, was held in the offices of the Merion Title and Trust Company in Ardmore. It was attended by approximately twenty committee men and party workers representing the sixteen election districts of Narberth and Lower Merion. Present also was Edward F. Kane, of Upland Way, Merion, chairman of the County Democratic Committee, who declared that reports from a number of districts in the county indicated that there would be a large vote in Montgomery for Smith and Robinson.

Arthur W. Burns, Narberth, was elected chairman of the committee. The secretary is Daniel McDonough, of Ardmore, who holds over from the previous committee. Other officers to be chosen are a vice chairman and a treasurer. They will probably be selected at the second meeting, which is scheduled to be held tomorrow night in the bank offices in Ardmore.

Hamilton Likely Treasurer.

The choice for vice chairman is uncertain, but it is likely that Richard J. Hamilton will be chosen treasurer. Weekly meetings, to be held each Saturday night, are scheduled by the committee for the remainder of the campaign.

A vigorous campaign throughout the entire county is planned by the Democrats, who see in Smith their first real chance to elect a President since Woodrow Wilson. For the first time in years, there will be a personnel of active party workers in every election district of the county, with regular meetings to check-up on their activities. In addition, a series of mass meetings to boost the candidacy of Smith will be held throughout the county.

The campaign will officially open for the Democrats with the first of their mass meetings, which is scheduled for Norristown. This will be followed later by a rally for the general Main Line territory, which will probably be held in Ardmore. Dates for both affairs are yet to be set. It is planned to have speakers of county and national prominence at all meetings. At the one for Lower Merion and Narberth, Samuel Rea, of Merion Square, former head of the Pennsylvania Railroad, who is chairman of the Philadelphia Smith for President Club, is regarded as a likely speaker.

Sub-Juniors to Meet

Miss Susan Reeves, of Windsor avenue, will be hostess to the members of the Sub-Juniors at their first fall meeting on Monday evening. Plans will be arranged for winter activities, one of which will be a membership drive. Any girl between the ages of 14 and 18 who wishes to join will be welcome at the meeting Monday. Mrs. L. Parker Miller is Chairman of the Sub-Juniors.

Were Cool Days

The weather report of Charles A. Decker for the week ending September 30 showed the minimum temperature listed was 38 degrees on September 25 and 27, the lowest for that date which the local weather observer has recorded. "A cool month" was his comment on the month as a whole. The highest temperature recorded for the week was 63.

The King Is Dead! Long Live the King!

The Editorship of Our Town, held by one person for seven and one-half years, passes with this issue to a new incumbent. Philip A. Livingston, who assumed the post when a college student in 1921, has withdrawn, and effective October 1 the blue pencil is officially wielded by Robert M. Cameron.

The change is not one of ownership or of policy. It will simply make possible a closer local touch, as Mr. Cameron will spend his entire time in developing and improving the paper. The former editor has taken charge of the business office of the Livingston Publishing Company at Ardmore and will exercise supervision from that office.

In the seven years just passed Narberth has grown both in population and commercial scope, and Our Town has been able to reflect that growth by tripling its size and paid circulation. Although one of a three-paper chain, Our Town has always maintained its local identity, and the new editorship should intensify this policy.

Mr. Cameron, a resident of Montgomery avenue, is a graduate of Yale University and an active member of the Narberth Tennis Club. His predecessor asks for him the same help and co-operation which have made the present growth of the paper possible.

PLAY BRYN MAWR IN YEAR'S FINAL

Game Saturday Will Decide Main Line Championship for 1928.

McKENTY IS HURLER

Due to inclement weather, the advent of the football season, etc., the powers that be in Main Line baseball have decided upon a single game between Narberth and Bryn Mawr, champions of the first half of the league, to decide the 1928 Main Line championship as a whole, in place of the scheduled three-game series.

Robert "Rube" McKenty, who was chiefly responsible for Narberth's second half championship with two victories over Berwyn, will be in the box in an attempt to make it three straight. McCain will be on the mound for Bryn Mawr.

Narberth has already vanquished Bryn Mawr once this season in a league game with Zip Long in the box by a 4-to-3 score. It was a nip and tuck contest throughout, so no walkaway is looked for Saturday. McCain also pitched this game for Bryn Mawr.

A victory this Saturday will write finis to a most successful season of baseball, both independent and league competition. A noteworthy feature of the year has been the game at home every Saturday, weather permitting. This arrangement, as judged by the attendance at the games this year, has proved vastly more satisfactory from the fans' viewpoint than a game away every other Saturday, as was the case in preceding years.

BOWLING SEASON OPENS NEXT WEEK

Inter-Church Bowling League Swings Into Action on October 12.

TO USE NEW ALLEYS

At the annual meeting of the Narberth Inter-Church Bowling League on Tuesday evening, October 2, at the Baptist Church, the following officers were elected: Hervey C. Keim, president; C. Rupert Reger, vice president; Stuart B. Weiss, treasurer; James McNiven, secretary. The first games are scheduled for Friday, October 12, at 8.45 P. M.

The bowling this year will be done on the new alleys being constructed at Lancaster and Ardmore avenue, Ardmore, providing these are ready in time for the opening of the bowling season. Donald Haig, who has wide experience in the management of bowling alleys, will be in charge of the new Ardmore alleys.

One of the chief objects of the Bowling League is to promote fellowship among the members of the various churches represented. Recently the membership has grown so large that in the fall of last year it was necessary to divide the league into two sections, "A" and "B". Ninety-eight bowlers participated in anywhere from one to 77 games during the 1927-28 season, while about sixty men are regular bowlers on the eight

L. M. ELEVEN WINS FROM BERWYN, 6-0

Tougher Opposition Than Usual and Rain Keep Score Down.

TALLY ON END RUNS

A tougher Berwyn High School eleven than usual and a steady drizzle of rain made it difficult for Lower Merion High to win its opening game of the football season Saturday afternoon at Ardmore. In spite of these handicaps, however, Captain Elmore and his company of fighters finally won out, but the score of 6-0 does not represent the full worth of Coach Adam's team against the visitors.

With secure footing Ernest Mandes would have been away and clear at least twice before the final quarter and victory came the home-ward way. But the muddy turf would not permit this shifty back to sidestep and twist and change his pace as he is so capable of doing.

Twice with open fields ahead he cut back to the right or left and lost his footing without a hand outstretched to touch him. Such was the story for the first 37 minutes of play. Then came victory.

Lower Merion retrieved the ball in mid-field with three minutes to go. Everything that could be tried in football in the way of advancing the ball had been attempted, except one. That was end runs. So Captain Elmore, who ran the team at quarter, began to experiment with these. Six times he had the ball passed back to Ernie Mandes and six times Ernie carried it for gains. The last one, a run of over 15 yards carried the ball over the final mark for the one and only touchdown of the game.

The final play was easily the shining strategy of the afternoon, for it completely upset Berwyn and had it guessing as to where the play was coming. Elmore had been running his off-tackle plays all afternoon on the long side of an unbalanced line. After Mandes had carried the ball to the opponents' 15-yard line in sweeping end runs, he called the signal.

Narberth Merchants to Share With Buyers

Plans for a prize award campaign to close during Christmas week were approved by the Narberth Board of Trade in two meetings held during the past week. The idea is one designed to share the profits of the season with local buyers and also to stimulate holiday buying in Narberth.

A committee meeting early next week will decide final plans for the operation of the campaign. Present plans call for the award of a group of prizes headed by a Ford car. Tickets will be given at the rate of one for each 25 cent purchase during the campaign. Forty business men and women, representing practically every large store in the borough, discussed the plans Tuesday evening at the Arcadia Restaurant, and resolved to use the prize awards as a means to demonstrate the value and capacity of local stores for holiday and year-round buying.

When final details are worked out next week, it is believed that the start of the campaign can be set well in advance of the middle of this month.

HOOVER MOVIE TO BE SHOWN IN BORO

Film, Sponsored by Hoover Club, Will Be Exhibited at Elm Hall.

BALLOT ON DISPLAY

The Hoover-Curtiss headquarters, opened last Monday by the Hoover Club of Narberth, at 100 North Narberth avenue, has been the scene of great popular interest. A large number of inquiries and visits have kept the volunteer workers of the new organization busy.

A card party and tea will be held at the headquarters on Friday, October 12, at 2 P. M. Tables may be reserved by calling the headquarters (Narberth 4124). Mrs. Floyd W. Woodcock, the chairman of this committee, will be assisted by Mrs. R. C. Hoffman, Mrs. E. C. Griswold, Miss Emma Mueller and others.

Preparations are under way for the moving picture, "The Man of Emergencies," which is being procured through the Hoover Committee of the Pennsylvania Engineers' Club. This four-reel picture will be shown at Elm Hall on October 19, at two performances, 7 and 9 P. M.

It was hoped that tickets might be distributed free to children but it was found to be impossible, owing to the expenses incurred in the showing. Public-spirited citizens will be asked to buy blocks of children's tickets so that they may not miss the opportunity of seeing this exciting and inspiring picture. Tickets will be on sale at the headquarters beginning today.

The headquarters aims to supply any information that may be desired upon the subject of voting, the amendments, etc. It also wishes to be of service to those who are casting their first votes this November in acquainting them with methods of procedure at election and explaining anything which may not be clear in the minds of new voters.

A sample ballot, an exact duplicate of the one which will be used in November, has been posted at the headquarters, where voters may familiarize themselves with it. Due to the large number of amendments this year the ballot is of unusual size and will repay a visit and study.

An important business meeting will be held at the headquarters this Saturday morning (October 6) at 11 o'clock.

Mothers' Council Holds "Get-Acquainted" Party

The mothers and teachers of the Narberth Public School had a most enjoyable time at their "Get-Acquainted-Party," which was held in the library of the school on the evening of September 27.

Each teacher had a "round table" of her own, plainly marked with the number of the grade, or the class, which she teaches. Each mother, therefore, was able to find very easily the teachers with whom her children come in contact. And she also had an opportunity of meeting the mothers of her children's friends.

Mrs. R. G. Augst, president of the Mothers' Council, spoke briefly upon the outlook for the coming season. A splendid program is being arranged. If the members have any suggestions or any wishes in the matter they were urged by Mrs. Augst to make known their wishes to the chairman of the Program Committee, Mrs. Clifford W. Bates. It is the desire of the association to bring to its members the thing they want most to hear.

After much sociability and fun, the chairman of the Hospitality Committee, Mrs. E. C. Griswold, and her most efficient helpers served ice cream and delicious home-made cakes.

These parties are delightful, bringing together the mothers and teachers in a most informal and friendly way. There is a rumor that later on in the year the fathers are going to have a party. This, however, is only a rumor, but doesn't it sound inviting?

Health Board Issues Warning to Boil Water--Finds Count Is High

Rotarians Hear Talk on Business Ethics

"How much is that suit?"
"Forty dollars."
"Give you eighteen for it."
"Couldn't take a cent less than thirty."

"How about $22.50?"
"Let's compromise for $27.50."

The days when such a conversation was typical of all purchasing were recalled Monday night by Philip Kind, Philadelphia jeweler. He was speaker at the meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club, taking as his subject "Business Ethics."

Mr. Kind not only told of the rise of business ethics from the days when "Caveat Emptor" was the motto down to the present reign of Better Business Bureaus, but also gave a review of business during the past century.

Not so many years ago, he said, the professions were the only respectable ways in which a living could be earned. Commerce was a last resort and was frowned upon by society. With the rise of popular education and the dawn of the commercial era, business men gradually became equal socially to their professional brethren.

In addition to that, business has come to attract the college-educated men, in many cases men trained especially for the type of commercial work they are to enter. This has also served to raise the standards of business practice.

Business was simply defined as a matter of buying and selling. The old practice, and the present legal angle, puts the burden upon the buyer—let him beware. But this idea, still legal, is no longer the practice of business men. "Honesty is the best policy" has taken its place as a motto.

Nearly every product sold today carries the name of its maker as an advertisement and also as a matter of pride. The one-price-to-all element has taken hold everywhere, and exchange and refund of unsatisfactory goods have also strengthened the position of the buyer.

Better business ethics is being created, Mr. Kind said, by the rise of trade organizations. Competitors who formerly did not recognize one another on the street now meet in friendly council and exchange information valuable to all.

COMMUNITY CLUB IN NEW QUARTERS

Women's Organization to Use New Room in Rear of Elm Hall.

MEET OCTOBER 16TH

The opening meeting of the Women's Community Club on October 16th will see the club occupying its new quarters in the new rear room of Elm Hall. The women, together with the junior and sub-junior departments, will have the exclusive use of this room with the exception of the first Thursday of each month. The decorations are now being selected by Mrs. L. C. Douglass and her committee. The club will also have the use of the large hall upstairs for four meetings.

The initial meeting of the 1928-29 season will be an organization and business meeting combined with a legislative meeting under the direction of Mrs. Edwin C. Town, legislative chairman. Mrs. J. E. Burrell will be the hostess of the afternoon.

The monthly program just out calls attention of Community Club members to the fall luncheon of the club on October 30 at 1 P. M. This will be in charge of Mrs. J. W. Darville, hospitality chairman, and her capable committee. Dr. George Earl Raiguel is scheduled to speak on "History in the Making."

Club members are cordially invited to register for the various classes which are now being formed. Mrs. W. C. Newman, literature chairman, would like registration for classes in "Creative Reading."

Action Taken After Chemist's Report Shows Condition Unremedied.

DAVIS DEPLORES ALARM

Warning against Springfield Water used generally by practically all residents of the Main Line territory was issued Monday night following the monthly meeting of the Lower Merion Board of Health in the township building at Ardmore. A statement, given out over the signature of the board's president, Dr. Bertrand K. Wilbur, advised the boiling of all water and against its use raw, except for cooking, laundry work and other purposes.

This action followed the submission by Dr. David W. Horn, Bryn Mawr, the board's chemist, of a report which showed a radical increase in the bacterial count of the water from 3 to 54 per cent. The gain per cc. was from 16 to 164.

The board's greatest allowance for a water bacterial count is 100, which is a maximum taken from the United States public health standard. The resulting condition was termed dangerous to public health, particularly, and here the board pointed to the statement of its chemist as "It must be steadily born in mind that at this time of the year the seasonal distribution of typhoid fever is at its height."

Began in July.

The increase in the bacterial count of the water was first noted about the middle of July. When the upward trend continued the Philadelphia Suburban Water Company, which supplies the Springfield water, was warned to remedy the condition and when it was reported Monday night that these warnings had resulted in no improvement, the health board decided to issue a public statement urging householders to boil their water before using to safeguard themselves.

Prompt denial was forthcoming from Carleton E. Davis, of Merion, manager of the Philadelphia Suburban Water Company at his offices in Bryn Mawr Wednesday that the product of his firm was dangerous to public health.

"We guarantee our product," said Mr. Davis. "Springfield water is perfectly safe and there is no need for boiling it or taking other precautionary measures."

"It is to our interest to have as high a standard for our water as possible and we have our own chemists who are constantly making tests to safeguard the supply. They have found nothing to cause alarm."

Mr. Davis hinted at lack of co-operation from the Lower Merion Health Board and intimated that this body in issuing its warning was needlessly alarming hundreds of families along the Main Line. He acknowledged receipt of the letters from the board informing him of Dr. Horn's unfavorable findings, but declared that when he asked for further information as to where the health board's tests were taken in order that he might have them checked, that information was not given, but a reply was made that if a remedy was not effected, more drastic and public action would be taken.

W. Russell Green to Speak to Women Voters

The League of Women Voters will hold their regular meeting on Monday, October 8, at 2.30 o'clock in the Girl Scout room of the Community Building on Windsor avenue.

The speaker of the afternoon will be W. Russell Green, local attorney, on the subject, "The Republican Platform." "Who's Who," a report on all other candidates regardless of party affiliation will also be a feature of the afternoon.

The League Card Party will be held on Monday, October 15, at Strawbridge & Clothier's Store, Philadelphia. Many new and attractive features are promised and a large attendance is desired. Reservation should be made by October 8 to Mrs. Staples.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

THE CANADIAN SYSTEM

To the Editor of "Our Town."

Having been a life-long student of the liquor problem I am naturally very much interested when any new suggestion is put forward. Just at the present moment the Canadian system is in the limelight because Governor Smith, of New York, candidate for the Presidency, proposes to scrap the Eighteenth amendment and give us in its place the Canadian system of Government control.

The provinces of Canada are already getting in shape to do with this abomination what South Carolina did with it.

It is true that they have liquor control in Canada but not in the sense ordinarily understood in this country. The actual thing up there is control of the provincial government by the brewers and bootleggers.

The bootlegger is a rat. He is in Canada the same as he is in the United States. He is as much at home among the aristocracy as in the slums. Plug up a rat hole today and that rat will gnaw through some other place tomorrow. To tell any intelligent man that the bootlegger can be annihilated by increasing the sale of liquor is equivalent to questioning that man's intelligence.

Walking on the streets of Toronto a few weeks ago I asked four different men at random where an American could get a drink of liquor. Three of them directed me to speakeasies or offered to take me. The fourth man directed me to a Government control store but said if I preferred to get it from private dealers there were several in the community.

Yelling for liquor control may be a good way to get votes for the Presidency. I have no question but that the thrifty will flock in large numbers to the support of Governor Smith. But the beverage liquor traffic is incapable of control. Its utter destruction is all that is left for it. Under the present situation Democrats who hold the same conviction on this question that I do, and there are millions of them, have found themselves kicked out the back door by the candidate of their own party. I predict there are millions of these same honest, sincere Democrats who are going to come back on November 6 and lick the boots off of him who kicked them out. The American people are preparing to settle this question November 6, and no amount of whispering or whimpering will blind them to the issue. They are not going to scrap the Eighteenth amendment and go back to wallow in the mire in order to save anybody's political hide.

PARTNERS IN PROSPERITY

You and this community are partners in prosperity.

If this community profits, you profit.

This is simple logic. You have made this town your home. Your interests are here. As the community neighborhood grows, as its business develops, in a like degree grow the benefits for yourself and your family.

Keep your money where your interests lie. When you patronize outside merchants, the money which you spend will never be used towards the growth of your community.

When you spend it here you invest it. And the investment will pay dividends in making this community a better place in which to live.

The prosperity of your community is assured if you make it a point always to buy from your home town merchants.

A PERSON who buys on installments should also save in installments. It is the only way to balance the family budget.

Narberth Boys on College Gridirons

Several Narberth boys have an opportunity before them to occupy the limelight as football stars this fall. In the opening game at Franklin Field one of Penn's touchdowns against Ursinus was made by Walter Masters, playing right halfback for the red and blue. Masters' open field running was particularly commended. And now on the heels of an injury this week to the Penn fullback Gentle, comes the talk in the sporting columns of a Philadelphia daily that Masters is the boy most likely to step into Gentle's berth at fullback. Masters distinguished himself at Haverford school and this summer was a member of the pitching staff of the Narberth Baseball Club.

Another baseball player, Bob Harris, son of Jesse S. Harris, of Merion avenue, played in Lehigh's opener against St. John's College, of Brooklyn. Harris played a good share of the second half as fullback for the Bethlehem team, which was on the long end of the score.

Johnny Gillespie, who caught most of the season on the Narberth Club, is back on the squad at Villanova. Like his fellows, he, too, is a back, and is expected to do great things for the Main Line institution this fall. Villanova's season opens this Saturday.

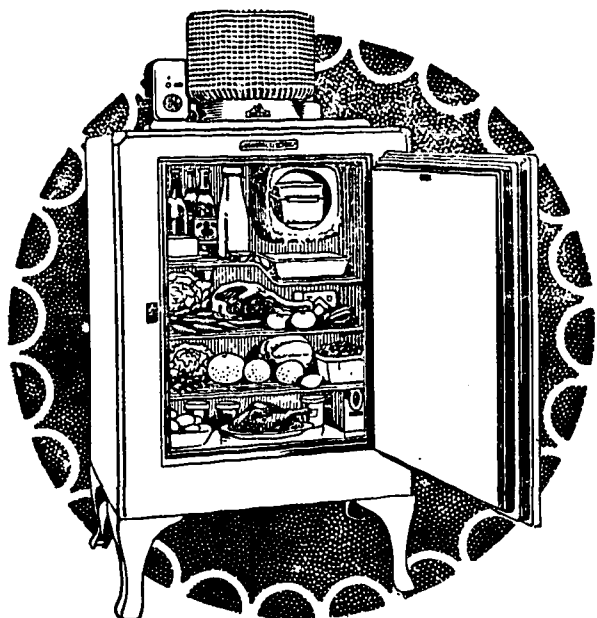

Give Free Lecture

On Friday evening, October 12, at 8.15 o'clock, a lecture on Christian Science will be given in the Women's Club in Ardmore. The speaker will be Mrs. Nelvia E. Ritchie, a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. The lecture will be free and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Plan Card Party

The Young People's Fellowship of All Saints Church, Wynnewood, are making plans for a card party to be held sometime this month, and for a Halloween party which will be held in the Parish house on Friday evening, October 25. Each Sunday evening, a committee is appointed who arrange the plans for the following meeting.

Scouts Functioning Well
An enthusiastic meeting of the Fathers' Association and the Troop Committee, sponsors of the Narberth Boy Scout Troop, held Tuesday night, showed a high degree of interest in the local troop. The meeting saw the reports of Scoutmaster George O. Schroder and Assistant Scoutmaster Thos. Merkle, and an explanation of the point system and prizes that are being offered to the boys. A minstrel show is being planned for the 28th and 29th of December. The nominating committee, consisting of E. T. Wolf, George O. Schroder and W. Russell Green will report at the December meeting of the troop committee and the Fathers' Association on the slate of officers for next year.

Whether you are buck private or general, or soldier, sailor or marine,—if you are a veteran of a United States foreign war, you are called to answer the Charter Roll Call issued by the Miller-Merkle Post, V. F. W. There is still time—but not much time—for you to enroll as a charter member.

"America's Old Guard," the Gold Stripe organization of 1845-1898-1917, calls you. Its slogan: "One Flag, One Country, One Language. Fellowship to Mankind."

Because,

IT is the only National organization, all of whose members have seen Foreign Service.

IT gives, through the common bond of Foreign Service, a unique spirit of comradeship.

IT is non-partisan and non-sectarian.

IT has long passed the experimental stage and is a going organization.

IT is always ready to help any service or ex-service man and his family, whether or not he is a V. F. W. member.

ITS members, your comrades, need you and you need them. They do not discriminate, although they are distinctive.

COME ON, BUDDIES. The next meeting at the Cynwyd Fire Hall, Monday, October 8th, at 8 P. M.

THE MILLER-MERKLE POST has been honored with permission to assist in forming other Posts on the Main Line.

"LEST WE FORGET"

You owe it to the COMRADES THAT HAVE PAID THE SUPREME PRICE to band together to respect the living. "In union there is strength."

Ask yourself truthfully, as an American of Proved Distinction, what comradeship means to Fellow Mankind.

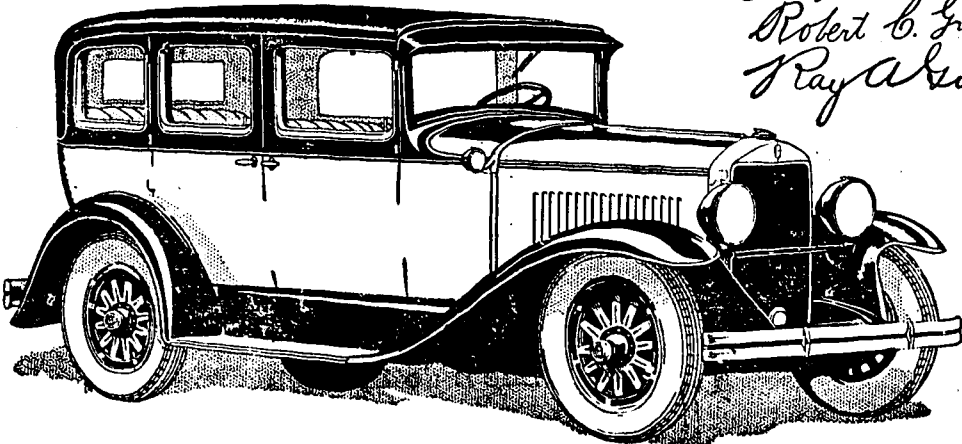

Answer this roll call NOW and see for yourself

BOWLING SEASON OPENS

During the season one-half of the teams could not meet the other half and the fellowship suffered accordingly. Also having only two alleys available made it necessary to bowl on irregular nights which, in turn, made attendance irregular.

Two important advantages are gained as the result of having eight alleys available at a convenient location: first, all games can be scheduled for the same night; and second, each team can bowl every other team in the league and thus restore the original spirit of fellowship.

Eight of the ten new alleys at Ardmore have been engaged by the Church Bowling League for every Friday evening at 8.48.

The alleys will be equipped with automatic pin setting racks, which will greatly facilitate the bowling. The three games of a match can be rolled in about two hours.

proress in its annual attempt to win a game from Lower Merion. This year's model Berwyn team is a corker. It has a line that is heavy and especially good on the defense. The backfield is versatile and one or two of the backs are extremely fast going around the wings. The quarterback, Larkin, is a great line crasher. All in all, Berwyn has a lot to be proud of.
